Nestled at the northern tip of Sabah is a hidden gem that will leave a lasting impression: Tommy's Place in Kudat. Unlike many tourist destinations, Kudat has remained largely untouched, allowing its natural beauty to thrive. With a shared Sulu Sea between Kudat and Semporna, guests of Tommy's Place can explore the diverse ecosystems and colorful coral reefs while snorkelling. Tommy's Place offers 3D2N packages that include three meals: breakfast, seafood lunch, and exquisite seafood dinner (served with seafood). The resort faces the South China Sea, providing guests with a refreshing sea breeze and stunning views. Within walking distance lies the Tip of Borneo, where guests can witness the South China Sea on their left and the Sulu Sea on their right. The Tip of Borneo also provides a picturesque backdrop for both sunrise and sunset. The snorkelling experience at Kudat is an adventure like no other. Guests can stroll along the white sandy beaches of the South China Sea before heading out on a snorkelling excursion. The seabed boasts vibrant coral reefs and a variety of tropical fish, such as Nemo fish, rainbow fish, and flying fish. Guests may also encounter marine creatures such as blue starfish, sea cucumbers, and flower jellyfish. After snorkelling, guests can venture to Light House Island, which is located in the Sulu Sea and boasts a nesting paradise for sea snakes and sea turtles. The island also has a small bat cave and a big reef stone that resembles a man watching his big toe from a certain viewpoint. As dusk approaches, guests can enjoy a spectacular sunset on the South China Sea beach, which is a world-class spot for posting of Instagram or Facebook. The fun doesn't end there, as guests can stargaze at the twinkling stardust from the Tip of Borneo and perhaps make a wish on a shooting star.

At night, guests can explore the bioluminescence "Blue Tear" phenomenon on the beach, which is a romantic and unforgettable experience. During low tide, guests can also discover a variety of sea creatures, such as sand crabs, sea hares, starfish, crystal prawns, shells, and small octopuses. The soothing sound of the sea waves will lull guests to sleep at Tommy's Place, providing a peaceful end to an unforgettable day. Tommy's Place in Kudat is the perfect destination for those seeking a tranquil and awe-inspiring escape. The memories of the crystal-clear blue sea, vibrant corals, and sparkling stardust will be treasured forever.
